

Leave a legacy

Support for the future

Every year thousands of people in Shropshire and beyond, benefit from the wealth of unique material held by Shropshire Archives. The Friends of Shropshire Archives, a registered charity, support this work by promotion, fund raising and organising a programme of events.

Leave a gift in your will

Please consider remembering us in your will. All gifts, whatever their size, will make an impact on the services Shropshire Archives can provide, and is greatly appreciated. Your legacy will enable us to continue support for the collections held by Shropshire Archives, and make them accessible to everyone.

Recent funding from the Friends has enabled us to buy unique Shropshire documents and equipment for archive storage. These and other purchases benefit our readers and researchers and contribute to the preservation of our collections. .

Our promise

- Your will is personal to you and we will always respect your privacy and comply with relevant legislation
- We will use your gift carefully to maximise its impact on our work
- You may choose to tell us about your will, but we will not ask you

Organising your gift

You can include us in your will in various ways. We hope the following will help to advise you.

- A Residuary gift allows you to leave a share of your estate to the Friends of Shropshire Archives
- A Pecuniary gift allows you to leave a specific amount of money to the Friends of Shropshire Archives
- A Specific gift allows you to leave particular assets or goods to the Friends of Shropshire Archives. Please contact Shropshire Archives directly if you are planning to leave books or archive material to add to the collections in your will.
